Program Manager

immersed in Jewish ideas

Shalom powers vibrant Jewish life in the Sydney community. We pioneer and produce engaging and inclusive programs and events that build community. These focus on arts and culture, talks, food, kids and families, leadership and innovation; including Limmud, Moth, Live Stories, Professional Women's Forum (PWF), Sydney Jewish Writers Festival and PJ Library.

Role

We are looking for creative and innovative talent who can take our programs to the next level, to engage, empower and enrich the Sydney Jewish Community.

Focused on engaging adults in their 20s and 30s, this role involves managing the end to end process of program creation, budgeting, marketing, delivery and evaluation in alignment with Shalom's strategy. You will be involved in delivering our existing suite of programs as well as generating new ideas to develop Shalom's offering.

educated

The successful candidate will have:

- Excellent interpersonal and engagement skills;
- Experience in project or event management;
- Passion for engaging people in their Jewish journey in an inclusive way, and building community;
- Creativity and curatorial skills;
- Computer and social media proficiency;
- Initiative and the ability to work collaboratively and independently.

part of a community
part of a Jewish network
part of making a better tomorrow

Shalom offers a flexible work environment and development opportunities, underscoring our commitment to empower people – staff, volunteers as well as participants – to become...

part of something that's so much more
