Shalom™
become...

become... part of the SHALOM TEAM

a leader
a pioneer
a voice

supported connected intellectually
enriched
immersed in Jewish ideas

As we begin our next phase of growth under our new CEO and brand, we are seeking dynamic talent to join our programming team.

Program Manager

Shalom powers vibrant Jewish life in the Sydney community. We pioneer and produce engaging and inclusive programs and events that build community. These focus on arts and culture, talks, food, kids and families, leadership and innovation; including Limmud, Moth. Live Stories, Professional Women's Forum (PWF), Sydney Jewish Writers Festival and PJ Library.

empowered
entertained

Role

We are looking for creative and innovative talent who can take our programs to the next level, to engage, empower and enrich the Sydney Jewish Community.

This is a senior role which involves managing the end to end process of program creation, budgeting, marketing, delivery and evaluation in alignment with Shalom's strategy. The role includes team and volunteer management. You will also be involved in generating new ideas and developing Shalom's offering.

inspired
educated
part of a community
part of a Jewish network part of making
a better tomorrow

The successful candidate will have:

- Experience in complex project and event management;
- People and stakeholder management experience;
- Passion for engaging people in their Jewish journey in an inclusive way, and building community;
- Creativity and curatorial skills;
- Computer and social media proficiency;
- Initiative and the ability to work collaboratively and independently.

part of something
that's so much more

Shalom offers a flexible work environment and development opportunities, underscoring our commitment to empower people – staff, volunteers as well as participants – to become...

For more information, please contact Michael Misrachi, Director, on (02) 9381 4000 or michael@shalom.edu.au

Applications close on 15 December 2016. Please include a cover letter, CV and referees.

www.shalom.edu.au