

work at an organisation that grows communities

Young Adult Engagement Manager

Reporting to the Director of Adamama, you will be responsible for engaging young adults aged 18-35.

Responsibilities:

- Manage and facilitate educational workshops and working bees
- Manage communal sustainability initiatives
- Develop Adamama community, volunteers and stakeholders
- Develop innovative and inspiring events, workshops and programs
- Identify and implement new programming opportunities
- Assist with the creation and writing of social media and marketing publications
- Assist with all aspects of Adamama as required, including school excursions and workshops

The ideal candidate will have:

- Background in formal or informal education
- Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills
- Strong written communication skills
- Strong time management and organisation skills
- Ability to collaborate and work independently
- Ability to work with stakeholders and volunteers
- Creative, innovative and can-do attitude
- Facilitation and leadership skills
- A green thumb and a love of the environment and sustainability
- A current WWCC
- A current First Aid Certificate

What we offer:

- 0.75 FTE role (ideally Monday-Thursday, with the occasional weekend hours)
- Flexible work environment
- Competitive salary and benefits

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO APPLY CONTACT ALON MELTZER
alon@shalom.edu.au